

Dedicated to Family Law

David S. Pollock

Founding Partner

David S. Pollock is recognized locally, nationally, and internationally as one of Pittsburgh's most distinguished lawyers. His success is grounded in dedication to his clients, expansive legal knowledge, exceptional business acumen, and knack for team and consensus building. David organized the firm effective January 1, 2001, inviting three other esteemed practitioners to partner with him in building a practice dedicated to personalized service, tough-minded analysis, empathy, and strategic approaches to fair and efficient resolutions of divorce, support, custody adoption and premarital matters. Pollock Beggs now boasts six partners and 15 attorneys and stands at the forefront of family law practices.

A dedicated volunteer, mentor, and supporter of numerous legal, community, and nonprofit organizations, David's ubiquitous presence is a trademark of his career and leadership roles. David has served the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers nationally and for the Pennsylvania chapter, the International Academy of Family Lawyers, internationally and for North America chapter, Duquesne University School of Law Dean's Advisory Board, the Jewish Community Center, Temple Sinai and as editor-in-chief of Pennsylvania Family Lawyer, the official publication of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Family Law Section for 20 years.
