

Dedicated to Family Law

Joseph R. Williams

Partner

Partner Joseph R. Williams, known for his charisma and charm outside the courtroom, is a tenacious litigator, respected by his peers and recognized for his courtroom successes.

Dynamic Force

Joe is a natural leader and an energetic force on the Pittsburgh legal scene. Joe's legal fortitude is evident in and out of the courtroom. He thrives on the challenges that arise with each unique client situation including:

- Divorce
- Custody and visitation
- Protection from abuse
- Equitable distribution and alimony
- Child and spousal support

As one of youngest law firm partners in the commonwealth, Joe has proven his abilities both inside and outside of the courtroom. Joe is equally comfortable aggressively litigating a contentious matter before the tribunal and working with clients to reach an amicable and cost-effective settlement outside of court. His prowess has been highlighted in various publications which he has authored and speaking and panelist engagements for continuing education seminars in Allegheny County and throughout Pennsylvania.

Enigmatic Volunteer

Joe is an involved member of the legal community. As the chair of the Allegheny County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, he led fellow young lawyers in public service, networking, educational and diversity endeavors. During Joe's chair year the ACBA YLD was recognized as first place in the American Bar Association for service to the bar, based on Joe's chair program The Little Black Book Project.

Awards, Recognition and Memberships

- Named to the Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Rising Stars list since 2012
- Named a Lawyer on the Fast Track by The Legal Intelligencer in 2013
- Past chair, Allegheny County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division
- Member, ACBA Family Law Section
- Member, Pennsylvania Bar Association Family Law Section Council
- Member, ACBA Board of Governors
- Treasurer, Duquesne Law Alumni Association Board of Governors

jwilliams@pollockbegg.com

437 Grant Street, Suite 501, Pittsburgh, PA 15219

(412) 471-9000 | PollockBegg.com