

David S. Pollock
Partner

"I've wanted to practice law all of my life, and I'm clearly someone who got lucky in terms of fulfilling a lifetime goal. I was drawn to law because I wanted to help individual people and be able to accomplish specific, definable goals for them."

Recognized among Pittsburgh's most distinguished lawyers, David S. Pollock is renowned for consensus building, expansive legal and business acumen and dedication to his clients.

Founding Drive

David organized the firm effective Jan 1, 2001, inviting three other esteemed practitioners to partner with him to build a practice dedicated to personalized service, tough-minded analysis, empathy and strategic approaches to fair and efficient resolutions of divorce, support, custody, adoption and premarital matters. Pollock Begg now stands at the forefront of family law practices.

Earned Recognition

David garners utmost respect from his clients, peers and the courts. His volunteer service, fundraising and professional excellence have been formally recognized by the Pennsylvania Bar Association, PBA Family Law Section, Pittsburgh Business Times, Jewish Community Center and National Council of Jewish Women, as well as other community organizations. He is a recipient of the JCC Ida and Samuel Latterman Volunteer Mitzvah Award and a Special Recognition from the National Council of Jewish Women/ACBA Family Law Section for fundraising to maintain the Jane B. Lobl Children's Room in the Family Division of Allegheny County Court.
