

Dedicated to Family Law

Candice L. Komar

Founding Partner

As a founding member of Pollock Begg, Candice L. Komar's legal career spans more than two decades as a prominent practitioner.

Innovative Approach to Family Law

Candice has established herself as a leader in collaborative law as well as a formidable opponent in the courtroom by leveraging her affinity for business and her understanding of the sensitivity surrounding family law. A certified mediator, who is also a fierce courtroom litigator, Candice excels at divorces involving:

- Valuation of closely held businesses
- Complex custody and child support litigation
- Custody relocation
- Collaborative law

---

Candice is regularly sought out by the media to discuss topical and cutting-edge legal issues. She often comments on high-profile national cases for network television programs. Her candid, hard-hitting and unbiased opinion garners her national speaking engagements. Both Pennsylvania Super Lawyers and Pittsburgh Magazine have featured Candice's pioneering work in collaborative law, making her an in-demand speaker and lecturer on negotiation and conflict resolution.

---

Candice's legal experience is complimented by a constellation therapy certification, providing her a deeper understanding of her clients' motivations. With her unique perspective, she crafts legal strategies that leverage the interest of both parties. She is available to speak on a range of topics: high-conflict custody cases — including those involving same-sex and unmarried couples — domestic abuse, collaborative law, and alimony and child support issues.
