Heather Trostle Smith

Senior Associate

Heather Trostle Smith is a senior associate attorney with Pollock Begg Komar Glasser & Vertz LLC and applies her experience in multifaceted family law issues to advocate for clients in all types of divorce, support and custody cases. Her practice includes complex financial estates and representation of high net worth individuals.

Diverse Background

Heather began her legal career in Pittsburgh concentrating in commercial matters, professional liability, personal injury law and family law with a well-known commercial litigation firm. Her keen ability to analyze problems and resolve conflicts, combined with her empathetic nature, enables her to successfully negotiate for her clients, while working toward resolution of the entire case.

---

“At a client’s most vulnerable time, he or she needs a listening ear, a calming force, a solid plan and a zealous protector. I bring all of those to every client and take great pride in using them most effectively to get him or her through the process — whether it be an amicable resolution or courtroom litigation.”
