

Ashley M. Majorsky
Associate

"Divorce is an emotional process. My ability to break down the numbers and guide clients through the financial and tax implications of their divorce is invaluable. By focusing on the story the numbers tell, I can relieve my clients' anxiety and help them develop concrete solutions for the future that they can feel confident about."

Ashley M. Majorsky is an associate attorney focusing her practice on equitable distribution, custody and support for clients with complex financial needs.

Business Acumen

Ashley brings a unique blend of financial and legal expertise to her family law practice. For more than a decade, she's used her experience as a certified business valuation analyst to guide clients through difficult financial circumstances. Combining a forensic accounting background with experience in civil litigation, Ashley makes the best possible use of the financial evidence in each case. She has a special interest and expertise in the tax implications of divorce.

Creating Connections

Ashley strives to make a connection with each client to gain the best understanding of his or her situation. As a certified collaborative law attorney, she helps her clients most efficiently access and use financial information to reach an agreeable outcome for both parties. Ashley helps clients focus on the data relevant to achieving a swift and confidential resolution, often while preserving family harmony and relationships.

Awards, Recognition and Memberships

- Accredited by the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts
- Member, National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts
- Trained and certified in Collaborative Divorce
- Member, Collaborative Law Association of Southwestern Pennsylvania
- Member, International Academy of Collaborative Professionals
- Member, Allegheny County Bar Association
- Member, Westmoreland County Bar Association
- Member, Pennsylvania Bar Association
- Recipient, Family Law Clinic CALI Award
- Recipient, John P. Gismondi Civil Litigation Certificate
- Editor, Pittsburgh Tax Review