

Dedicated to Family Law

Ashley M. Majorsky

Associate

Ashley M. Majorsky is an associate attorney at Pollock Begg Komar Glasser & Vertz LLC focusing her practice on equitable distribution, custody and support for clients with complex financial needs.

Ashley strives to make a connection with each client to gain the best understanding of his or her financial circumstances. Combining a forensic accounting background with experience in civil litigation, Ashley makes the best possible use of the financial evidence in each case. She has a special interest in the tax implications of divorce and has written extensively on the impact of the 2017 Tax Cuts & Jobs Act on family law.

Ashley began her career with four years of dedicated experience as a certified business valuation analyst, before attending the University of Pittsburgh School of Law where she received the Law Alumni Association Scholarship, the John P. Gismondi Civil Litigation Certificate, and the Family Law Clinic's CALI Excellence for the Future Award.

Divorce is an emotional process. My ability to break down the numbers and guide clients through the financial and tax implications of their divorce is invaluable. By focusing on the story the numbers tell, I can relieve my clients' anxiety and help them develop concrete solutions for the future that they can feel confident about.

Memberships and Accomplishments

Giving back to the western Pennsylvania legal community is important to Ashley. During law school and while working as a law clerk at Pollock Begg, she volunteered as a certified legal intern with the Allegheny County Pro Se Clinic.
