

Brian C. Vertz

Partner

"Family law was serendipity for me at first, but I quickly learned that my aptitude for numbers was a big asset in this field. Every day we're dealing with calculating our clients' incomes for support hearings, dealing with the value of business interests they may own and tracing transactions involving their investments and assets. Having the MBA has been a great benefit."

Partner Brian C. Vertz applies more than two decades of experience, business acumen and sharp negotiation skills to a broad array of family law matters including divorce, litigation, settlements and appeals.

Complex Financial Analysis

With an MBA and certification as a valuation analyst, complex financial affairs have become the crux of Brian's career. He excels at cases involving:

- Valuation of closely held businesses
- Assessing personal assets including premarital wealth and trusts
- Executive compensation
- Medical and dental practices
- Complex child support litigation

Advocate and Problem Solver

Clients who work with Brian remark on his tenacity and unwavering dedication to their financial and emotional well-being. In the legal community, Brian is known as a problem solver who does not play games or engage in empty rhetoric. When a case can't be settled, Brian is a formidable advocate in the trial and appellate courts. He has developed an impressive track record in child support and divorce litigation, as well as prenup enforcement and child custody proceedings.
