

Morgan M. Bonekovic
Associate

"I enjoy family law because it affords me the opportunity to work closely with clients and form a relationship with them. It's gratifying to see a client become more confident and independent as I guide them from our initial consultation, through the legal process, to the conclusion of their case."

Open and honest communication defines Morgan M. Bonekovic's legal style. Attentive to clients' needs, she delivers legal options to help them make informed decisions for the future.

Advocate and Activist

Morgan takes an active role in furthering the legal profession and fostering inclusivity within the legal community. Within the Allegheny County, Washington County and Pennsylvania bar associations, she participates in committees dedicated to advancing the practice of family law, protecting LGBTQIA+ rights and supporting equitable environments for racial and ethnic minorities. She is a member of the Pennsylvania Commission for Fairness & Justice, serving on its LGBTQ+ Rights Committee.

Community-Minded Leadership

Community service has been important to Morgan since her days in Delta Zeta sorority and she's maintained her Delta Zeta connection serving as Alumna Advisor for Recruitment at the University of Pittsburgh and Alumna Advisor for Membership Accountability at her alma mater, Slippery Rock University. In 2020, she was honored with Delta Zeta's 35 Under 35 Award highlighting outstanding young professionals who've made an impact in their industry, demonstrating leadership, initiative, dedication to their careers and commitment to volunteerism.
